
ADDRESS RADIO CLUB—Robert Hall, Minneapolis (shown at blackboard), gave a demonstration and lecture on screen grid modulation at the banquet of the Central Wisconsin Amateur Radio club here last weekend. "Ham" operators were present from Appleton, Neenah, Menasha, Oshkosh, New London, Wausau, Milwaukee, Adams-Friendship, Stevens Point, Marshfield, Oxford and Wisconsin Rapids. Jack Doyle, Milwaukee, a director of the American Radio Relay League, spoke on present FCC proposals pertaining to amateur radio. Other speakers included Chief of Police R. J. Exner, Reno Gaeth and John Schnider of Wausau, A. F. Christianson of Oxford, and Joe Yeager, Wisconsin Rapids, club president. Phil Weinscroft, Adams, was master of ceremonies. Henry Leslie was presented a gift for being the eldest licensed amateur operator in this city, while Richard Yeager received a transmitter as the most recent licensed amateur.
